

BERMUDA GOVERNMENT

IMMIGRATION APPEAL TRIBUNAL

PATI Information Statement

Name of Public Authority: Immigration Appeal Tribunal

Introduction:

The Public Access to Information 2020 (PATI) legislation was designed to make central Government, and the larger public section, more open and accountable by giving the public the legally enforceable right to request and access information subject to limited and prescribed exemptions. Each public authority is required to produce an information statement that gives the public an overview of the types of information accessible through the public authority.

This information statement provides information on the functions and services of the Immigration Appeal Tribunal and the classes of records held.

Section A: Structure, Organization and Legislation [s5(1)a]

The Immigration Appeal Tribunal was established under the Bermuda Immigration and Protection Act 1956 (The principle Act) and the Bermuda Immigration and Protection (Appeal) Rules 2013.

Section 13A (1, 2abc & 3) of the Act informs of the Constituents comprising the Board:

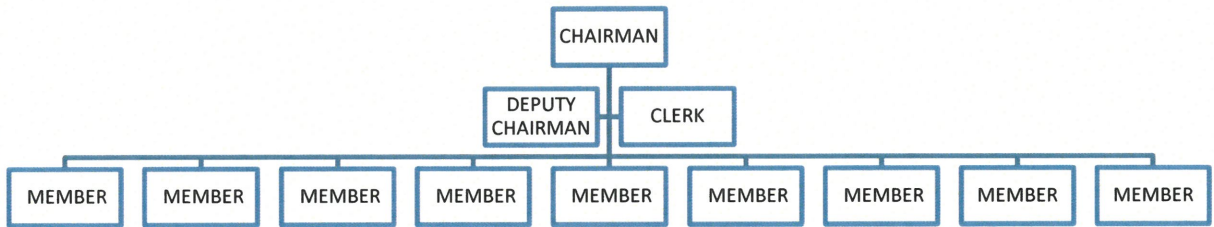

The Board shall consist of a pool of not less than nine members nor more than 14 members appointed by the Minister.

Here are some other key structure and organization elements of the Immigration Appeal Tribunal:

- Two barristers and attorneys with no less than 5 years standing who possess Bermudian status to act as a Chairman and Deputy Chairman.
- Two barristers and attorneys of not less than three years standing who possess Bermudian status; and
- Any other persons with such experience or expertise as the Minister deems necessary from time to time

The Chairman shall appoint a panel to hear and determine any appeal made to the Immigration Appeal Tribunal consisting of the Chairman or Deputy Chairman and two other members, S.13B

Organizational Chart:

For the purpose of conducting a hearing, the Immigration Appeal Tribunal has all the powers of a court of summary jurisdiction in relation to the summoning of witnesses, their examination on oath or otherwise and compelling the production of any document or thing relevant to the subject matter of the proceedings. IS. 3E (1-2).

The Immigration Appeal Tribunal is aided by the Clerk who is assigned by the Permanent Secretary, S. 3 of the Rules.

The Minister is represented by counsel from the Attorney General's Chambers.
